

INAUGURAL CORROSION AWARENESS HONOUR

an annual award to an outstanding individual corrosionist

In association with the World Corrosion Organization (WCO), the Chinese Society of Corrosion and Prevention (CSCP) and the European Federation of Corrosion (EFC) have collaborated to create an international award to celebrate outstanding achievement in raising public awareness of corrosion.

The inaugural annual CORROSION AWARENESS HONOUR is now open for submissions.

The Corrosion Awareness Honour recognises pioneering individuals who have made a substantial contribution to increasing awareness of the importance of corrosion and corrosion protection amongst government, industry and the general public. The award consists of a certificate and the sum of 1,000 EUR.

In their award submissions, nominees should meet some, but not necessarily all, of the following criteria:

- a meaningful contribution to promotion of public awareness of corrosion and corrosion protection
- leadership of initiatives with government and/or industry to highlight the importance of corrosion and corrosion protection
- marked impact on the practice of corrosion control through educational, outreach and dissemination activities
- affiliation to CSCP, EFC or WCO.

The closing date for applications is June 15, 2024.

The award winner will be notified by July 15, 2024 and will have the possibility to present a lecture at the award ceremony during the EUROCORR event in September 2024.

Nominations must be addressed to the WCO office:

Prof. Dr. Willi Meier
WCO

E-mail: wilm@aiiche.org

About WCO:

The World Corrosion Organization promotes education and best practices in corrosion control for the socio-economic benefit of society, preservation of resources, and protection of the environment. Its members are involved in the dissemination of corrosion information, corrosion research, education, mitigation, and/or materials selection.

<https://corrosion.org>